Chaplain's Chatter

Just another dip into my well-thumbed, falling apart copy of "Living Quotations for Christians" (published 1974 Hodder Christian Paperbacks)

RESPONSIBILITY

Our Main business is not to see what lies dimly in the distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand. (Thomas Carlyle)

From anyone who has been given much, much will be demanded (Gospel of Luke. Ch12, v.48, N.I.V)

I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty (John D. Rockefeller)

Man must cease attributing his problems to his environment, and learn again to exercise his will – his personal responsibility in the realm of faith and morals (Albert Schweitzer 1875-1965)

The most important thought I ever had was that of my individual responsibility to God (Daniel Webster)

Sent with Kind regards, and wishing you good fellowship in His Name

Alan Templeton
